Important News

The Erika Center at St. Ann Catholic School is excited to offer a specialized instructional reading program for students with dyslexia or characteristics of dyslexia. Students will receive five hours of instruction per week with an Orton–Gillingham Academy trained teacher.

The program is rolling admissions until the beginning of the second semester. Tuition is prorated depending on start date.

The Erika Center here will meet every day for an hour.

The students who attend will be taught using Orton–Gillingham Academy ELA instruction.

Student–teacher ratio will not be greater than 10:1.

The program costs $3,000.00 in addition to the regular St. Ann tuition. Non–St. Ann students can attend, tuition is $4,000.

The extra fee will be added onto your FACTS account and paid throughout the year.

Our Erika Center teacher is Michelle Brown. She is an Associate level Orton–Gillingham trained educator.

Any student screened is either recommended by parents, teachers or both and seen as a good fit for the Erika Center.
