Favorite/influential teacher:

You could always count on Mrs. Liddell to crack a joke and make you laugh even on bad days. Mrs. Liddell was always the cool teacher that everyone wanted to hang out with. John Angotti came to St. Ann when I was in 5th grade and wrote common ground. I remember learning the song in the old music room where the current chapel is today. I also told John when I was in 8th grade that I wanted him to play at my wedding and he did. Mrs. Finney was and is still fantastic and I see her frequently at local Mexican restaurants with the Angotti family. She was the only teacher that will ever call me pee-poopie because of the dogs she had when I was in middle school. The nickname still sticks to this day. I would go visit Mrs. Lynn in the office and get hugs from her and Stacy. Mrs. Lynn also was my 8th grade confirmation sponsor.

Favorite St. Ann memory:

I spent 9 years at St. Ann. Some of my favorite memories would include: playing cricket and roller hockey on the scooters in Ms. Finney PE class, annual teacher-student volleyball game, Oregon Trail in Mrs. Slattery's computer class, pep rally and winning the spirit stick, playing sports especially big games against our rivals St. Louis especially in middle school basketball, the musical Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, field days, and and aftercare especially in the summer, walking to Mr. Green's pool, water days in the courtyard, shaving cream fights, and so much more.

Family:

Justin (husband) and 2 children, Brooks (age 7) and Braxton (age 3)

General update and fun facts about you:

I still live in Bartlett. I met my husband at MTSU where we both worked in the intramural sports department and got married in 2013. I have been an ER nurse for 8+ years and just recently started a new job at St. Jude. When I am not at work, you can typically find me at my kids events. I am extremely thankful to my parents who allowed my brother and I to attend St. Ann, which will always be a huge part of my childhood memories. I am incredibly thankful for the wonderful staff and teachers who helped develop the foundation of who I am today.

Shout out to Sarah Metaxas Burrow (Class of 04) for our family picture.
