Kyle Van Frank

Class of 2011

St. Ann alumni family:

Dean Van Frank (brother), 2009

Favorite/influential teacher:

This is a really difficult one for me, because I truly loved every one of my teachers at St. Ann. Going to school at St. Ann everyday for 9 nine years would have been miserable if it weren't for the exceptionally loving, compassionate, and dedicated educators at St. Ann. I am the person I am today because of the commitment of my teachers. However, Ms. Renate McMeekin will always hold a special place in my heart. Her ability to not just form our minds but also our hearts, let us have fun but also learn, and demand both respect and joy from all her students will stick with me for a lifetime.

Favorite St. Ann memory:

This is another hard one! So many. School plays with Mrs. Peeney, Knowledge Bowl, playing soccer, Teacher vs. Student volleyball games, kickball on the field, pep rallies. It was an incredible place to grow up. But most of all, the memories made with lifelong friends, especially fellow classmates Nicole Harty Foreman, Shayla Gaffney Nash, and Justine McGoff. stand out.

High school attended:

St. Benedict at Auburndale HS, 2015

Post high school education:

BA, Theatre, Concentration in Musical Theatre – The University of Alabama (2019)

MS, Nonprofit Leadership, Concentration in Mission-Driven Operations & Management – The University of Denver (expected 2023)

Occupation:

Director of Alumni for St. Benedict at Auburndale High School

General update and fun facts about you:

I love St. Ann and the community there. At the end of my senior year of high school, I joined the Church after 13 years attending Catholic school. I am a parishioner of St. Ann, and I love getting to go back to campus each Sunday. Go Colts!
