ALUMNI PROFILE

Colt Alumni Spotlight

Michael Mosteller

Class of 1975

St. Ann alumni family:

Pam, Tim, Barbra, Sandy, Mark, and Janet (Siblings)

Favorite/influential teacher:

All of the very dedicated Sisters of Charity in particular Sister Estelle, who had a great tolerance and love for rambunctious boys. She was a loving and patient teacher. I would receive Christmas cards from her for many years. She had 2 sisters who were also members of the Sisters of Charity.

Favorite St. Ann memory:

Coming from a big family (9 kids) at a time when big families were the norm. So at St Ann, you were part of an even larger family, this also meant you had many mothers. It wasn't unusual to be swatted by another mom when she caught you misbehaving. The ravioli dinners were simply a big celebration of family, a school-wide fundraiser to buy a new school bus, watching the "new" church being built, and Father Oglesby coming off the altar in the middle of Mass to help my father clean up a broken baby bottle are all great memories.

I enjoy many friendships with my former classmates to this day. The bond we share, even years later, is a testament to the lasting impact of my time at St. Ann. It's amazing how a simple group text with my former classmates can bring back memories and make you feel like you are in 5th grade again.

Family:

Wife Nikki, son Max, and daughter Mari

Nikki's son Nick and daughter Whitney, and a gaggle of wonderful grandchildren.

General update and fun facts about you:

A former restaurateur, I have a fondness for cooking, telling a good story, and trying to get things to grow in my yard. There is nothing sweeter than a full dining room table and a loud room.

High school attended:

Christian Brothers High School

Post high school education:

University of TN

Occupation:

Real Estate Broker with REMAX
