A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR...

For the first time in forever, theater has returned to the stage here at St. Ann Catholic School! I could not be more excited to make Frozen Kids come to life as the first production on our refurbished stage.

Frozen is a show that has captivated the hearts of young people for the past decade, since it premiered on screen in 2014. Between all of the magic, music, and mischief, the story of Frozen also contains many life lessons that are valuable to both children and adults today. Values of love, bravery, persistence, self-sacrifice, and being yourself.

In Frozen, we discover that love means putting others before yourself. We learn that when others are different, we don't have to be afraid of them. We see that while people may make bad choices when they're scared, we can also persevere and be brave in the face of adversity. Finally, we find out that we shouldn't hide our talents, but we should be proud of them.

Tonight, our students are putting their talents front and center to bring Frozen to life. However, this doesn't happen by magic. This is the first time I've worked to create theatre with our elementary students, and I'm so proud of the hard work and dedication I've seen from this cast of characters. For the past two months, students, faculty, parents, and volunteers have all come together to make the magic become reality.

So, I have to ask you.... Do you wanna build a snowman? Sit back and let the students of St. Ann take you away to the Kingdom of Arendelle and the story of Frozen.

- Ryan Cooper

A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL...

Frozen! What a great opportunity for our 2nd-4th graders to become thespians. They get to learn what it is like to perform before a live audience. And, this will be the first group to perform on the newly renovated St. Ann stage. I have been looking forward to this event since I arrived at St. Ann in 2018. Hoping this is the first of many plays and concerts on this stage. Good luck and #GoColts #SASfrozen

God bless you,
