

Code of Conduct for “Peter Pan Jr.”

Please read through the following information and sign where indicated.

THERE ARE NO SMALL PARTS. Everyone is essential to this production. We do not have “stars”. No single student is more important than any other student. We want to create an ensemble as well as a memorable, positive experience for all. We expect parents to model this behavior and encourage their child to create a positive atmosphere.

RESPECT OTHERS. It is expected that all students be respectful, polite, humble and truthful to their fellow cast mates, directors, crew and parent volunteers. Negative attitudes, gossip, bullying, defiance, foul language, eye rolling, or other forms of disrespect will not be tolerated. This includes any form of social media (ie Instagram, snapchat, group texts etc.) This is grounds for dismissal from the production.

RESPECT FOR OUR SPACE AND MATERIALS. Our rehearsal spaces, dressing rooms, and theater need to be respected. Please do not leave garbage or your belongings. Treat props, costumes, and all materials with respect. Do NOT touch anyone else’s props!! You may be asked to find and purchase costume and prop items for the show.

FOLLOWING DIRECTION. Full participation and attention is required from every actor and crewmember. We have a limited number of rehearsals times! Lines, songs, and dances must be memorized in a timely manner. Being on time and ready for rehearsal/performance is a must. There are no CELL PHONES allowed in rehearsals or performances. NO FOOD OR GUM is allowed in the theater or the dressing rooms. All snacks need to be eaten prior to rehearsal. Water bottles are allowed and highly encouraged!

REHEARSAL SCHEDULES will be given out prior to the parent meeting on January 6th. Be sure to check them! Missing a MANDATORY practice will result in dismissal from cast or crew. It is your responsibility to tell Mr. Cooper ahead of time if you will be missing a regular rehearsal.

I have read, understand and agree to the above requirements for participation in Peter Pan Jr.:

Parent Signature: _____