A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR...

“I wish...”

“Once Upon a Time...”

These are words and phrases that we would hear as kids, all the time. Children are always wishing for something, asking for stories, and telling stories themselves. Maybe that child is wishing for a new bike, the latest game system, or just to do well on tomorrow's big test. Going to bed, they may ask for a bedtime story. Getting picked up from school, they may be trying to tell you about the latest thing that happened in the classroom.

Wishes and storytelling are two things that we never grow out of. Even as adults, we're still wishing for one thing or another. Perhaps you say the same “Once upon a time” that we often heard as children.

Tonight, this group of students is taking you back to that “Once upon a time,” to a land of giants, beanstalks, wolves, magic, and mystery. However, this didn't all happen by magic. Though we may wish for something, that wish won't come true without hard work. Students, faculty, parents, and volunteers have all come together, donating time and resources to this production. Our young actors and actresses have put in many many hours practicing the show, learning their lines, and singing some difficult music.

Just as well, many sponsors and donors have given their resources to help us put on this show. We are very grateful to them, and to St. Benedict High School for the use of their wonderful theater.

Thank you for coming out to see our show! Sit back and enjoy, as the cast and crew of St. Ann Catholic School take you back, once upon a time, Into the Woods.

- Ryan Cooper

A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL...

I am excited about St. Ann's return to the theater and greatly look forward to all three performances of Into the Woods. Our students and staff have been hard at work in preparation for this play. Putting on a musical (and not an easy one) for an elementary/middle school is not for the faint of heart.

I commend Mr. Ryan Cooper and our students for taking on this challenge with zeal and enthusiasm. Education is much more than just books. It is about developing the whole child, and the Arts and creativity go hand-in-hand.

I would like to thank our many supporters who have helped to fund this theatric endeavor. And, a special thank you to our top sponsors; Boyle, Juice Plus, and Little Caesars. Good luck to all the cast and crew. Enjoy the show!

God bless you,

Didier Aur, Principal
