A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR...

As kids, everyone has a great sense of imagination. We create stories, art, music, dances, and often do it all with toys and stuffed animals. It's practically a universal experience of childhood. Here, we find Christopher Robin with his stuffed animals in the Hundred Acre Wood, "where childhood never ends."

Pooh and his friends remind us all about the power of friendship, loyalty, and imagination. They learn that they need to work together to solve their problems and save Christopher Robin. Originally published in 1926, the Hundred-Acre Wood still has plenty to teach children and adults, nearly one-hundred years later.

Our students have put a lot of time and effort into putting on this show. Hours and hours of singing, dancing, and acting come together to tell this story for you. We're so proud of all these students, and we're so thankful for the parents, teachers and volunteers who have helped to make this possible.

Enjoy the show, and give a big "Hip-Hip-Pooh-Ray!" for Pooh Bear and his friends!

Enjoy the show!

- Ryan Cooper

A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL...

I would like to start off by congratulating everyone for their work to make our theater department such a success! I am thrilled that all the plays now take place on the St. Ann stage. I'll be even more thrilled when we replace the roof and HVAC system on that building. Replacing both has turned into a $300,000 project. If you are able to help us financially, please let me know. We need you. Good luck to the cast and crew on Winnie the Pooh Kids. Should be a lot of fun. Way to go Mr. Cooper! #GoColts!
